Pivot Table of Claims and Supporting Facts

| Claim Category | Core Claim | Supporting Facts | Interpretations / Inferences | Implications |
|---|---|---|---|---|
| Provenance | The book comes from the estate of P. Ernest "Ernie" Riese. | Estate attribution; inscription to "Erna Riese." | Indicates direct Riese family possession. | Establishes baseline authenticity of ownership. |
| Riese Background | Ernie Riese was a 33rd Degree Mason, Knights Templar, and Bohemian Club member. | Documented affiliations; elite fraternal involvement. | Suggests access to occult/fraternal networks. | Positions Riese within influential esoteric and social circles. |
| Family Connection | Tom Riese was likely Ernie's son and one of the signatories. | Name appears in inscription; family linkage probable. | Suggests intergenerational involvement. | Connects inscription to Riese family directly. |
| Property Link – Black House | Riese owned the California Ave house later purchased by Anton LaVey ("Black House"). | Ownership record; LaVey purchase; house known as Masonic before. | Suggests continuity between Masonic and Satanic symbolism. | Physical nexus between Riese and LaVey. |
| Property Link – Westerfeld House | Riese family were landlords of Westerfeld House. | Westerfeld House tied to LaVey rituals; Bobby Beausoleil residence; Kenneth Anger film production. | Shared physical space between occult, counterculture, and future Manson figures. | Suggests environmental convergence of networks. |
| Film & Cultural Intersection | Kenneth Anger filmed Invocation of My Demon Brother at Westerfeld House; music by Mick Jagger. | Production timing aligns with 1967 date. | Cultural + occult overlap. | Embeds Riese property in major countercultural moment. |
| Date Significance | July 10, 1967 inscription. | Height of Summer of Love; Monday; possible ritual day; aligns with Anger film schedule; Feast of the Synaxis of St. John the Theologian. | Occult, lunar, Masonic, and production symbolism converge. | Suggests the inscription date may be intentional rather than random. |
| Architectural Symbolism | Westerfeld House contains Masonic-aligned architecture (e.g., pentagram ceiling). | Architectural observation. | Reinforces symbolic Masonic continuity. | Enhances esoteric interpretation of events occurring there. |
| Cluster of Names | Inscription includes: Erna/Erma, Tom Riese, Bob, Mary, Linda, Susan, Paula. | Names correspond to possible Manson-associated individuals (Bobby Beausoleil, Mary Brunner, Linda Baldwin, Susan Atkins, Paula Bigelow). | Suggests early gathering of Manson inner circle in San Francisco. | Implies connection between Riese household and Manson affiliates. |
| Order of Names | Gift presented to "Erna Riese" by Bob, Mary, Linda, Tom Riese, Susan, Paula (with repetitive "and me"). | Tom listed with full name among first names. | Suggests assertion of authority or ownership role. | Positions Tom as central organizer or "Master." |
| Absence of Signatures | No LaVey or Anger signatures. | Their absence noted. | Consistent with personality profiles (avoid documentation). | Decreases likelihood of forgery under this interpretation. |
| Zodiac Link – | AI analysis suggests similarity | Stylistic comparison. | Raises suspicion of | Connects Riese to |

| Claim Category | Core Claim | Supporting Facts | Interpretations / Inferences | Implications |
|---|---|---|---|---|
| Handwriting | between Tom Riese handwriting and Zodiac killer traits (hooked "y," reversed "E"-like forms). | | authorship similarity. | Zodiac theory. |
| Zodiac Link – Timeline | Riese fits approximate age/timeline; symbolic overlap between Zodiac ciphers and Masonic/Bohemian imagery. | Age alignment; symbolic parallels. | Suggests ideological or symbolic continuity. | Implies possible authorship or influence. |
| Manson/Zodiac Parallel | Theories propose overlap or collaboration between Manson murders and Zodiac killings. | Public speculation; overlapping time frame. | Book seen as nexus between groups. | Positions event as convergence of "dark side" of Summer of Love. |
| Role Framing | Tom as "Master/Architect"; Bobby and Manson women as "Apprentices." | Symbolic interpretation via Masonic hierarchy language. | Frames hierarchy within occult context. | Suggests structured mentorship dynamic. |
| Recruitment Context | July 1967 corresponds to period when Manson group recruited in San Francisco. | Timeline alignment. | Names in book interpreted as early-stage Manson affiliates. | Suggests pre–Los Angeles linkage. |
| Linda & Susan Presence | Suggestion that Susan Atkins and Linda Baldwin were present in Black House and Westerfeld in 1967. | Inscription date; later Manson involvement. | Implies undocumented pre-Manson network. | Expands narrative of early formation period. |
| Bohemian Club Timing | 1967 Bohemian Club gathering; Nixon's Lakeside Talk before 1968 candidacy. | Historical record of speech. | Places Riese within elite political environment same summer. | Suggests proximity to power structures. |
| Media Motive Theory | Charles Fracchia (Westerfeld co-owner) early investor in Rolling Stone. | Ownership dates 1965–1969. | Suggests media proximity; possible notoriety motive. | Supports theory of Zodiac media-taunting intent. |
| Occult Record-Keeping Practice | Book (Somebody's Thinking of You by Rosalind Welcher) consistent with LaVey's alleged use of innocuous books instead of ledgers. | LaVey's "Black Pope" persona; reputation for theatrical secrecy. | Book may function as coded attendance artifact. | Suggests concealment strategy rather than sentimental gift. |
| AI Probability Assessment | AI reportedly assessed <1% probability that the meeting did not occur. | AI analytical conclusion. | High-confidence inference of gathering. | Used to reinforce strength of claim. |